Claim offer now.What channel is the NFC Championship game on?Fox will be broadcasting the nationally televised 2022 NFC Championship game, which kicks off on Sunday, Jan. WilsonTavon Wilson FS Wed, Jan 26 Foot IR. Here's what Tuesday's practice report looks like: Did not participate Kevin Jairaj-USA TODAY Sports DL Nick Bosa (concussion) DL Jordan Willis (ankle) Bosa's non-participation isn't a great sign for his availability Saturday, but he could still be cleared. WilliamsTrent Williams OT Mon, Jan 31 Ankle Questionable for the start of training camp J. Wednesday will be a big day for that. Not listed (AP Photo/Tony Avelar) DL Maurice Hurst Hurst was a scratch vs. Rams Thomas will have some relevance as a defensive back going up against LA's receivers, while Mitchell and Wilson Jr. are the top two backfield options for San Francisco are important. Injured Reserve J. the Cowboys despite not showing up on the injury report. Dallas, but given how the injury looked right away it appeared to be much worse. Rams odds, spread, over/under & betting pick NFC Championship gameThe spread for San Francisco versus Los Angeles opened up with the 49ers being a 3.5-point underdog, according to the oddsmakers over at WynnBET, and that line hasn't moved at all since.Perhaps the spread stayed slightly in the Rams' favor because of their higher seeding in the NFL playoffs' picture, or because the Niners still aren't quite sure about Williams' status.Either way, San Francisco's moneyline is +152, whereas LA's is -185.The over/under for the game is 46.0.Our initial prediction suggested the 49ers wind up making it seven wins in a row over their NFC West rivals, and there's no reason to change that here, especially if The Faithful wind up taking over SoFi Stadium as they did in Week 18.We predict San Francisco winning 24-20.WynnBET Promo: Bet $1, Win $100 if any NFL or college football team scores. Any injury to a key player could become magnified in such an important game and there are a few to sort through for San Francisco going into Championship round. MostertRaheem Mostert RB Mon, Jan 31 Knee - Meniscus IR. Injured Reserve D. FordDee Ford DE Wed, Dec 15 Back IR. The 49ers had to open their week of practice ahead of the divisional playoffs without star defensive end Nick Bosa. WilsonJeff Wilson RB Mon, Jan 31 Ankle Questionable for the start of training camp D. Williams is the biggest name on the report, and his presence on the offensive line could be key with LA's front featuring Leonard Floyd, Von Miller and Aaron Donald. Erin Andrews and Tom Rinaldi will be on the sidelines.NFC Championship game live streamFans unable to watch the game live on TV can stream the game on their favorite devices, either by subscribing to fuboTV (a free seven-day trial for first-time users), or in-market fans can visit 49ers.com or download the team's official app.Should the Niners advance after beating LA, they'd go on to play the winner of the AFC Championship game, played earlier in the day between the Kansas City Chiefs and Cincinnati Bengals, in Super Bowl LVII.Super Bowl LVI kicks off on Sunday, Feb. Rams NFC Championship gameThe Niners are fortunate to be dealing with a relatively clean slate of health, but there's one notable player who appeared on the team's injury report in advance of the game:LT Trent Williams (ankle); questionableRB Jeff Wilson Jr. (ankle); questionableWilliams, who suffered his injury during San Francisco's divisional-round win over the Green Bay Packers and was later seen walking on crutches, didn't practice during the week.If he can't go, the Niners would likely be forced to field reserve tackles, such as Colton McKivitz or Jayton Moore, which is quite the downgrade against a LA pass rush that netted 50 sacks during the regular season.49ers vs. GaroppoloJimmy Garoppolo QB Mon, Jan 31 Thumb Questionable for the start of training camp J. 30 at 6:40 p.m. ET from SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, California.Joe Buck will be handling play-by-play duties with Troy Aikman on color commentary. Nevertheless, Sunday's bout is far more important than any other between these two franchises, save for the 1990 NFC Championship game when the Niners beat Los Angeles en route to the Super Bowl that season.That marks the only other time these two teams have faced each other in the NFL playoffs, and there's little reason to doubt it'll be a good game.San Francisco, of course, would like it to be a one-sided victory.49ers injury report vs. Injured Reserve R. Flannigan-FowlesDemetrius Flannigan-Fowles OLB Mon, Jan 31 Knee Questionable for the start of training camp Player Position Updated Injury Injury Status T. SkuleJustin Skule OT Mon, Jan 31 Knee - ACL IR. Having depth on the defensive line is vital for the 49ers, and it appears Hurst will be available after missing much of the season with a calf issue. 13. VerrettJason Verrett DB Mon, Jan 31 Knee - ACL IR. Green Bay though with Bosa dealing with a concussion and Willis potentially out with his ankle injury. With their matchup vs. Thomas is dealing with a contusion and is expected to play vs. Warner's participation is an excellent sign. Injured Reserve Captains of the San Francisco 49ers and the Los Angeles Rams (Photo by Michael Zagaris/San Francisco 49ers/Getty Images) The 49ers square off today against the Rams in the 2022 NFC Championship game, and we've got your betting odds, injuries and how you can watch live.Just one more game stands between the San Francisco 49ers and another trip to the Super Bowl, one that would mark the second time in three seasons.For the Niners to pull that off, though, they first have to defeat the Los Angeles Rams in the 2022 NFC Championship game, hopefully adding to a win streak they've carried over the last three seasons where head coach Kyle Shanahan's squad has gone 6-0, including that thrilling overtime victory in Week 18 that ensured San Francisco would get into the playoffs in the first place.Perhaps LA regrets not having eliminated the 49ers during that contest. The No. 2 seed San Francisco 49ers and No. 4 seed Los Angeles Rams will face off against each other in the NFC Championship game this Sunday. He is still in the phase of concussion protocol where he's unable to participate in on-field work. Bosa was one of two players absent from Tuesday's practice because of a concussion he suffered late in the second quarter of San Francisco's wild-card win. Limited participation Kevin Jairaj-USA TODAY Sports LB Azeem Al-Shaair (knee) QB Jimmy Garoppolo (right shoulder, right thumb) LB Dre Greenlaw (groin) LB Marcell Harris (Achilles) S Talanoa Hufanga (knee) RB Elijah Mitchell (knee) CB Ambry Thomas (knee) LB Fred Warner (ankle) There aren't any surprises here since all of these players have been dealing with injuries. Green Bay per head coach Kyle Shanahan. The team may need him vs.
